The ASEAN Youth Forum (AYF) is a movement that represents and fights for the young people in ASEAN to voice out their concerns and strategies for ways to achieve a better ASEAN. AYF has been a platform of the youth in the ASEAN to raise their voice and claim for their rights for a sustainable, inclusive, people-centered, and youth-driven regional community. The network aims to focus the engagement on important and timely local issues affecting the youth, and consolidate policy proposal and agenda to put forward to the relevant ASEAN offices.

AYF holds an annual and regular meeting of youth civil society organisations in Southeast Asia, which is held as a parallel meeting to the ASEAN Summit. It is a strategic avenue to engage with ASEAN member states and mechanisms. It is also a venue to discuss the issues and concerns of young people in ASEAN and how to address them.

AYF has been working at the local, national, and regional level. In the last fifteen years, AYF has been organized in Thailand (2009), Viet Nam (2010), Indonesia (2011), Cambodia (2012), Brunei Darussalam (2013), Myanmar (2014), Malaysia (2015), Cambodia (2016), The Philippines (2017), Indonesia (2019), online across ASEAN (2020, 2021), Viet Nam (2022), Singapore (2023), and Lao PDR (2024). It has already involved more than 2,500 young leaders of Southeast Asia.
